BENJAMIN DILLEN S 8329 of Virginia Service
or Dillon

He is the only Benjamin Dillen or Dillon found on file in the Revolutionary War records of the Pension Office. He was born January~~4~~ 18, 1755 in Pittsylvania County (that part which later was Henry County) Virginia His father was living during the Revolution, but names of parents are not stated. While residing in Henry Co Va, Benjamin Dillen served from the first March 1779, three months as private in Capt John Salmon's company, Col Abraham Penn's Virginia regiment, and served from the 1st day of March 1780 six months in Capt John Salmon's company, Colonel Abraham Penn's regiment. During this service he was guarding the arsenal and magazine in Henry County Court House, Virginia.

Benjamin Dillen moved from Virginia in 1796 to Rockingham County North Carolina, in 1801, moved to Guilford County North Carolina and in 1826 to Davidson County North Carolina. He was allowed pension on his application executed August 14, 1833, then living in Davidson County North Carolina. He died April 14, 1838 leaving a widow. Her name is not stated and there is no further reference to his family.

JEREMIAH HORN made application in Carroll Co. Tennessee D c 11, 1832. Age 76 ; states he was Born in North Carolina, in the now County of Orange, 25 December 1755.; that he entered service 1778-9, He went to HARRODSBURG ON KENTUCKY River and lived some months with Hugh McGerry, when he volunteered to go and build a fort on Elkhorn, called BRYANTS STATION which they succeeded in completing; Shortly after this there were 3 companies of volunteers, enrolled to serve as long as called to go against the SHAWNEES and British, and they joined each other previous to crossing the Licking. . Their Their captains were John Holder, under Capt William Harrod and the third by Capt Benjamin Logan. All these were under Col John Bowmer - from there they marched to the Ohio river and crossed it about mouth of Licking. Here they left 15 men to guard their ferry boat to secure their retreat. From this place they marched on within 5 miles of where Chilicothe now stands, where they ~~secured~~ rescued one white man a DUTCHMAN, name not recollected and killed all the Indians who lived in the house consisting of two families. From here they marched on thro the Shawnee Plains, to Chillicothe, on the Miami- sometime in the night the action began and was kept up till eleven o'clock next day. They succeeded in taking the town with the exception of 4 /~~the~~-Block houses to which the enemy retreated into

At this time a council of war was called and it was decided that Col John Bowmer should still command but not expose himself to the heat of the Action as they now determined to storm these block houses. Then Col John Bowmer accordingly gave the order to storm which they obeyed. After several assault, what was carried on from house to house, when they had arrived within one house of this point, the defence being very obstonate and having lost 16 men and several wounded, They received order to retreat - They then retre returned to the Ohio river, found their boat safe, crossed it and marched on again passed the Licking when they were dischar ed by their officers. viz Captain John Holder and Colonel John Bowmer, - this declarant returned to Bryant Station in on the Elkhorn. where he remained until he returned to North Carolina, Guilford county, which was a short time afterwards. Here he he married and resided several years, when he removed to Holston river in KNOX COUNTY TENNESSEE, where he resided about one- 17 years when he removed to WILSON CO TENN where he again resided 16 years. where he removed to Alabama Jackson County where he resided 3 or 4 years from x whence he moved to the county, where he has since continued to live.

RALPH R. HORN Of Virginia and Virginia Sea Service S 38046. Revolutionary war pensioner was allowed pension on his application executed April 27, 1818, in King William County Va, his age is not stated. He stated he enlisted Sept 16, 1775, as a private under Capt Taliaferro, Col Woodford's second Va regiment, was in the battle of Long Bridge and served until Aug 1776, when he was discharged on account of sickness. He again enlisted in November 1776 in Capt Alexander Dick's Company of Marines and served about one month, when Capt was appointed in a s state regiment, in Feb 1777, he was ordered on board the Musketo, a vessel fitted out by Va, on March 21, they captured the British merchant vessel "JOHN" and the transport "noble"; he was put on board the noble and after conveying her into a French port, he proceeded on another cruise, on June 4, 1777, he was captured by the "ARIADNE" commanded by Sir Thomas Pringle, charged with high treason, piracy and rebellion, and committed to jail in the Barbadoes until Jan 17, 1778, when he was sent to Jamaica and put in prison on a Man of War, from which he made two attempts to escape, but was discovered, and was not discharged until 1783. -That he never returned home u until 1783.

"One of his sons was named Robert B. Horn".
This was stated in a letter to some one, but I could not ind this. There is no further data relative to his family.
I believe the statement that he had son Rober is not correct. There is a Robert Pollard mentioned.-as a clerk of the court.

WILLIAM AND SARAH BAILEY OF Va SERVICE W 5777

At a court of chancery held for Kanawha Co Va 1833 14th May 14 May 1833 before Lewis Summers judge of the Circuit Superior court of law and chancery for said county, Wm Bailey a resident of Pocatallico age 79 states in 1776 he enlisted in Albemarle Co Va for two years in a company under Captain THOMAS WALKER of the 9th regiment of Regular Troops on continental establishment, and that he continued to serve as a private in said company and regiment for the full term of two years for which he had enlisted at the expiration of which period, he was regularly discharged in Pennsylvania, about 15 miles from Philadelphia, at White Horse. ; that he was in the battle of Brunswick and at the taking of Burgoyne at Saratoga, besides various skirmishes and slight engagements with the enemy.

Wm Bailey further maketh oath that in the year 1820, while still a resident of County of Albemarle he made application in due form and was placed in the pension roll, under provisions of act of Congress passed March 18, 1818 and was continued on said pension roll for about one year and a half, when he was dropped therefrom on the ground, as was alleged, that he possessed property to an amount which excluded him from the benefits of said act of May 1818. That he continued to reside in Albemarle Co until about three years since, when he removed to the place where he now resided. That since his name was dropped from the pension roll, as aforesaid, he has not received any pension or annuity whatever, nor has his name been on the pension roll of the agency of any state. signed William Bailey (his x mark) officers of Russell Co Va, as a private soldier in forts in Russell Co Va in actual service in two forts upwards of a year. The forts were BLACKAMONS AND PENELTON fort in Russell Co. He was in service when Blackamons fort was taken. In this service in standing guard he enlisted for no particular period, but the service he performed was commanded by the head officers, of the co[illegible] as he understood by the authority of the state of Virginia. He was to receive from the State so much per month, a part only he received, he served under divers officers in the forts and on scouting parties. Hawkins was commander mostly until his registration as aforesaid. Further service he never received any written discharge. He has stated his age - he states his name is not on the pension roll of any state, or the United States, that he never received anything whatever for his services under the Act of Congress aforesaid not from any State, and he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension except the present. His name he supposes can be found on the roll of said regiment, but he refers to the evidence of Colvin aforesaid. In the same company and regiment he had three OTHER BROTHERS : whose names were THOMAS HOWARD, JAMES HOWARD and JOHN HOWARD. SAID JAMES HOWARD AND THOMAS HOWARD LIVES IN FLOYD COUNTY KENTUCKY. WHO DRAW PENNSIONS FOR SAID SERVICE as he is informed, who onlisted at the same time and for the same term. The reason why he has not applied sooner for a pension is that he has always been informed the Act of Congress aforesaid did not apply to his case,- signed Benj Howard (his x mark)

Crump clerk of the Harlan Circuit Court - the first man age 65. the other 38 state on oath in open court certify that they have no doubt the said Benj Howard aforesaid who is a resident citizen of Harlan Co is of the age he states, that from their knowledge of his general good character they believe the facts he has stated are true. Signed 7-12-1837 ---- Whereupon it is considered by the court that General GEORGE BRITTAIN and John G Crump are reputable persons and utmost credence given to their statements whereon oath. And that it is certified as the opinion of this court that the declaration of the said Benjamin Howard is true in part of fact. signed John G Crump.

Clerk of the Harlan Circuit Court.

---ROCKCASTLE COUNTY KY Andrew Colvin a citizen of said county age 70 on the 12th last March. He remembers there was a young man under his command by name of Benjamin Howard and from the correct narrative given by him at CUMBERLAND GAP, he thinks he must have been with him. Howard is mistaken in this in saying that Lewis was a Colo. He was only Capt commandant and had the same name of all the troops in that section. It is a mistake that he was under Hawkins, but was under Capt Lewis, Hawkins was on the under Lewis, but afterwards made Capt. Signed Andrew Colvin, Rockcastle Co Ky 30 Oct 1837 . (there is a note by a clerk pinned to this last statement, stating "OMIT".

Who onlisted February 1778 and served one year as a private in Capt John Blackwell's company, Colonel Wm Heth's Third Virginia regiment and was at the battle of Monmouth. He was allowed pension on his application executed December 28 ~~1829~~ 1819 while a resident of Fauquire County Va, age 60. In 1820 he referred to his children "all grown up". There is no further data on file as to his family.

JAMES BAILEY OF VIRGINIA SERVICE S 6577

States, I, James Bailey of Surry County in Virginia do certify that I was a soldier in the Revolutionary war, until the siege at Little York was over and Cornwallis taken prisoner, my services in the war were as follows; I was enrolled under Capt Wm Bailey, a militia captain, of Surry Co Va, sometime 1779 and in November the same year, was called out under Capt Wm Hart, into actual ser ice and served a tour of six weeks duty, and in 1780, I served two more tours of duty under Capt John H. Cooke or Cocke, the father of the present General John H. Cocke and in 1781 I went under Capt Hart again, March or April and was under him in the battle of Petersburg, General Muhlenberg being our commander, with some other field officers, we returned or retreated to the Coal Pits. I was then put under Capt Vaughn, and was under him when General LaFayette came from the North and received us, which he did on SHOCKEN HILL at Richmond and took command of all our army, there I stayed until about first June when I was called down in the lower army, commanded by Col Parker, Col Wills and Col Blunt, which was to dog the enemy in that quarter and keep them from pillage and plunder. I served this tour of duty under Capt Willis Wilson and was discharged this time or tour of duty under Capt Willis Wilson and was discharged sometime in July and about the last of Aug or first of Sept I was called out under Capt Lemmuel Cooke? but his wife wife was taken very sick and he returned. I was then put under Capt WILLIAM BAILEY, Major William Boyce an old Continental officer, commanded and carried us over the river to WILLIAMSBURG, there we joined the army of Gen. LaFayette again. and waited under his command and for Gen Washington, at this t time I was called on, an expedition on the head of York River where we had a sharp skirmish with a British Barge, of about 30 men, that was in share? afterwards lookout boat, we had a Lieutenant and 17 men, we beat the Barge off, and saved our boat, on our return back to the main army we found General Washington was come from the north - we immediately marched down to Little York and after storming two of the enemy redou redoute? or off forts and farming a service or smicircle intermarch or mount round the town, planning batteries at proper places, began a siege, which lasted while the 17th of Oct, when Cornwallis surrendered and on the 19th they came out and gave up their arms. I was in 60 or 70 years of General Washington when the flag came out to him, for my duty assigned me was in the inner intrenchments, nearest the enemy

- I was discharged in a few days after the surrender and returned home. ---- THOMAS BAILEY/1832 appeared before Senior
Charles H Grange J P and made oath he was in the war of the Revolution and recollects that James Bailey of Surry Co Va was in the army and served two tours of six weeks each and at York town Va of two months when Lord Cornwallis surrendered.
